A business partner cancels an appointment by leaving a voice mail message

Hi, this is Adam Swanson calling for Ron Jaworski. It's about 3 on Friday afternoon. Ron, I had something come up at the last-minute, so I won't be able to meet with you and Pete Schilling Monday as we had planned. I'd like to reschedule for later in the week, if that works for you and Pete. I'm available late Tuesday and Thursday afternoons, but early morning Wednesday or Friday would actually be best for me. We could still meet at Pete's office, as we planned, or I'd be able to meet somewhere else if it's more convenient for you. Sorry about the cancellation. Please call me as soon as you can after hearing this. My cell is 886-2468, or you can call my office at 351-9823 and leave a message with my secretary, Crystal Gains. Thanks, Ron. I'll talk to you soon.

Q1 Who is the message for?

A Adam Swanson

B Ron Jaworski

C Pete Schilling

D Crystal Gains

Q2 What is the main purpose of the message?

A To reschedule an appointment

B To explain a meeting cancellation

C To propose a new meeting topic

D To change a meeting location

Q3 What will the listener probably do next?

A Cancel Monday's meeting

B E-mail Crystal Gains

C Return the phone call

D Take a long vacation

Giving boarding information to train passengers

Good morning, rail passengers. For those of you taking the 9:45 Starlight Special to Amityville, you will need to exchange your ticket for a boarding pass before you board the train. Boarding passes are available now at the purple booth next to door 9. If you need to buy tickets, come to one of the ticket windows on the east side of the station, or use one of our automated ticket machines located throughout the lobby. Once you have your tickets, each passenger must exchange them for a boarding pass, including young children. When you have obtained your boarding pass, you are ready to access the platform. The train will board through door 9 beginning at approximately 9:15. Thank you.

Q1 What is the main purpose of the announcement?

A To detail ticket-price information

B To explain about boarding passes

C To welcome new rail passengers

D To guide people to the correct door

Q2 What should listeners do once they have tickets?

A Trade them for boarding passes

B Check in all their bags and luggage

C Go the yellow booth next to door 19

D Board the train through door 9

Q3 What is scheduled to happen at 9:15?

A The train will depart

B Tickets go on sale

C Boarding will begin

D The train will arrive

Giving a weather update and forecast on a private radio station

I'm Denise Dinger with KPUT weather. The soggy week we've been having in the valley promises to get dryer soon. Today we're looking at morning showers with afternoon sun breaks and a high of 55. Tomorrow morning will be partly cloudy, with increasing clearing in the afternoon and a high of 60. Friday looks to be sunny and clear with a high of 70, and that weather should carry over into the weekend. Saturday will be mostly sunny with highs near 70, and Sunday should be sunny and clear with highs soaring to nearly 80 degrees. For KPUT, this is Denise Dinger with valley weather.

Q1 When is this report most likely being broadcast?

A On Monday
B On Wednesday
C On Thursday
D On Sunday

Q2 What will happen on Sunday?

A There will be a snow storm
B The rain will increase
C The temperature will decrease
D It will be warm and sunny

Q3 What is suggested about the weather prior to this report?

A It has been unseasonably hot.
B There has been a hurricane.
C It has been raining a lot.
D It has been freezing cold.

Reading Comprehension

EXAMPLE 2 – a double passage

To: N.Ryan@uniservice.co.us
From: clientservices@quart.com
Subject: Account past due
Date: February 20

Dear Mr. Ryan,

The Accounting Department has notified me that your account is past due. There is an outstanding balance of $2,450, which applies to our Invoice QA3192, sent out on November 9 of last year.

Your patronage is very important to us, and I would like to offer any assistance we can in resolving this matter. If you require additional time to settle your balance, please get in touch and I will authorize the necessary credit extension in order to avoid any administration fees that might otherwise be incurred. Please note that I am able to allow no more than an additional 14 days in which to pay off the debt.

We appreciate your business, and I sincerely hope that this matter can be resolved quickly. Thank you for your prompt reply.

Ms. Dhanda, Customer Relations, Quart Inc.

To: clientservices@quart.com
From: N.Ryan@uniservice.co.us
Subject: Re: Account past due
Date: February 28

Dear Ms. Dhanda,

Please forgive my late reply, but I have been away on business and have just returned to find your e-mail.

I am surprised that you indicate payment is still outstanding for the invoice you mention. I have checked our records, and payment for Invoice QA3192 was processed on February 9. This is in line with our normal credit terms of 90 days, which we agreed on back in 2011. It may be that your Accounting Department failed to notice this payment before contacting you. In fact, this is not the first time we have experienced this problem. Last year, on three separate occasions we were contacted directly by Mr. Wells, demanding payment for deliveries when in fact payment had already been made. I recommend that you review the accuracy of your procedures for recording payments to avoid alienating your regular customers, who may decide to take their business elsewhere if this situation does not improve.

Best regards,

N. Ryan, UniService Accounts
